

Professional Profile

EDWARD P. SULLIBAN, Owner
Property Management Services Group
Grubb & Ellis/CBI

Experience:

- President of Jackson & Sullivan, Inc. from 1992 to present.
- Executive VP/General Manager of Monroe & Friedlander Mgmt Co. from 1982 to 1990.
- Controller for theCoca Cola Bottling Co. of Honolulu from 1979 to 1981.
- Vice President/Controller of Paradise Beverages from 1974 to 1978.
- Accountant to Internal Auditor for AMFAC Distribution Co. from 1971 to 1974.

Education:

1970 graduate of Seattle University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting.

Broker's License.

Various BOMA & IREM courses, earning his Real Property Administrator (RPA) designation in 1985 and his Certified Property Manager (CPM) designation in 1988.

Affiliations / Others:

Active in Building Owners & Managers Association (BOMA), past president; Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM), current treasurer; International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). Served on advisors board of the YWCA Facilities Committee; past volunteer for St. Anthony high School Alumni Assoc., Holy Trinity School, Kalani Athletic Association and other community groups.

Personal:

Born - October 16, 1948.

Married to Sandra who is Human Resources Vice President for the Cutter Automotive Team.

Children - 2, Jason who is 26 with a degree from Washington State University and presently a 4th year student at Ohio State University School of Veterinary Medicine. Megan who is 23, a recent graduate of the University of Oregon and employed at Duty Free - San Francisco.

Interests - golf, exercise, gardening.